

The question recurring upon the passage of the bill,
 On motion of Mr. Hopkins, by unanimous consent,
 The vote by which the House concurred in the amendments proposed by the Senate,

Was reconsidered.

The amendments were then rejected.

The bill was then returned to the Senate.

Mr. McLane submitted the following message :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, }
 Annapolis, Feb. 9, 1870. }

Gentlemen of the Senate : ,

We propose, with the concurrence of your Honorable Body, the appointment of a Committee, consisting of three on the part of this House and two on the part of the Senate, to confer upon proposed Senate amendment to House bill entitled an Act to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 170, Article 30, Public General Laws, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Rivers," the House having refused to concur in amendment proposed by the Senate. We have appointed on the part of this House Messrs. McLane, Hopkins and Cooper.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
 Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Morse, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably,

A bill entitled an Act to Incorporate the Stockholders of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, passed at November session, 1810, chapter 69.

Which was read a first time.

Mr. Blake, Chairman of a Select Committee, reported unfavorably on the leave granted to said Committee, to report a bill entitled an Act to regulate Primary Elections in the City of Baltimore.

The report was concurred in.

Mr. Lankford, from a Select Committee, reported the Senate bill entitled an Act to amend the Public General Laws, passed January session, 1865, chapter 31, so as to exempt Somerset and Worcester counties from the effect of the second section thereof, so far as relates to the publication of the local laws, with proposed amendments.
