

Paid for kill. ing.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That out of the tax hereby directed to be levied upon the owner or owners of dogs in said county, as hereinbefore provided, the sum of two dollars be paid by the County Commissioners as a compensation to any person who may kill or destroy as hereinbefore provided any fox or foxes in said county, and the surplus or residue of said tax, if any shall constitute a general county fund in the hands of the County Commissioners for said county, for the repair of the public roads thereof.

Must present before being paid.

Sec. 6 And be it enacted, That before the killer or destroyer of any fox in said county, shall be entitled to the compensation of two dollars as aforesaid, he shall present both the bush and scalp of the fox so killed or destroyed to the Commissioners Court of said county, and make oath, in their presence, that the same was killed or destroyed by him in said county.

Approved April 4, 1870.

CHAPTER 339.

AN ACT a Supplement to an Act entitled "An Act for founding a College at Chestertown."

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by resolution number thirty-one, passed February seventeenth, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, and by the Act passed March the tenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, certain sums of money were authorized to be paid annually to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College, as compensation for the boarding of one student from each of the then existing eight counties on the Eastern Shore, making in the aggregate, with the amount paid to said Visitors and Governors, under laws existing prior to eighteen hundred and forty-eight, the yearly sum of three thousand dollars, being three hundred and seventy-five dollars for each of said students; and whereas, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, the county of Wicomico was erected and organized out of portions of Somerset and Worcester Counties, in