CHAPTER 370.

AN ACT to repeal Section one hundred and thirty-eight, of Article sixteen, of the Code of Public General Laws, title, "Chancery Sub-title, Trustee," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section one hundred and thirty-eight of Article sixteen of the Code of Public General Laws, be and the same is hereby repealed, and re-enacted so as to read as follows: Repealed and re-enacted.

139. In all cases where a trustee has been appointed by will or deed to execute any trust, and any person interested in such trust shall make it appear to the court that it is necessary for the safety of those interested in the execution of the trust that the trustee should give bond and security for the due execution of the trust, the court may order that such should be given on or before such day as the court shall name; and if the bond, with such security as the court shall approve, be not given by such trustee, then the court may remove such trustee and appoint one in his stead, who shall give such bond and security as the court may require; and no sale of real estate made by any trustee by virtue of any power or appointment contained in any deed or will shall be valid unless the same shall be confirmed by the court, as in the case of sales made by trustees appointed by the court. Trustees to give bond.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Valid.

Approved April 4, 1870.
