

Delegates; and that the doorkeepers, folders, and pages shall be under the supervision of, and control of the sergeant-at-arms of the House of Delegates.

Of the Senate: one secretary with a per diem of ten dollars, one reading clerk with a per diem of ten dollars, one journal clerk and one sergeant-at-arms, per diem each five dollars; two committee clerks, per diem each five dollars; one folder, one doorkeeper and one page, per diem each four dollars; one janitor (to be appointed by the President of the Senate) who shall be keeper of the Senate chamber and the rooms adjoining, and lamplighter for the same, with a per diem of five dollars, and a chaplain or chaplains with such compensation as the Senate may determine.

Subordinate officers.

Of the House of Delegates, one chief clerk and one reading clerk, per diem, ten dollars each; and one engrossing clerk, per diem, six dollars; one Journal clerk, per diem, eight dollars; one sergeant-at-arms, per diem, five dollars; four committee clerks, per diem, five dollars each; one janitor, (to be appointed by the Speaker of the House,) who shall be keeper of the hall of the House of Delegates and of the rooms adjoining, and be lamplighter for the same, with a per diem of five dollars; two folders, two doorkeepers and two pages, with a per diem of four dollars each; one keeper of documents, who shall also be messenger to the printer, (to be appointed by the Committees on Printing of the Senate and House of Delegates,) with a per diem of four dollars; and a chaplain or chaplains, with such compensation as the House may determine.

There shall be one postmaster for the two Houses of the General Assembly, with a per diem of five dollars, (to be appointed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Delegates,) who shall be required to give bond in the penalty of six thousand dollars, payable to the State of Maryland, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, with such security as may be approved by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Delegates, and it shall be the duty of the postmaster to render monthly accounts to the Committee on Claims of the number and value of stamps purchased by