

Shall not give away. Somerset County, and the clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County shall not grant any license for any such sale or disposal, nor shall any person give away such liquor, or keep it with the intent to give away, (except as a medicine by physicians, or for sacramental purposes,) in any tavern, store, grocery, shop, boarding or victualling house, or place of public amusements, or any place connected therewith; nor shall it be lawful to deposit any such liquor except in a dwelling house, or in a church* for sacramental purposes, or in some mechanical, chemical or medicinal establishment requiring its use, or whilst in storage for transportation.

Boundaries. 140. The boundaries of said district, for the purposes of the preceding section, shall extend to the middle of the channel of Tangier Sound and Manokin river, respectively, whenever they or either of them shall bind on said district.

Penalty. 141. If any person shall sell or give intoxicating liquors contrary to the provisions of the one hundred and thirty-ninth section of this Article, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for the first offence, and in default of payment shall be imprisoned not less than five nor more than twenty days, or both, in the discretion of the judge or justice before whom the same may be tried, and for the second offence he shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall be imprisoned not less than five nor more than thirty days, and for the third offence he shall be fined not less than fifty dollars and be imprisoned not less than twenty nor more than fifty days; one-half of the fine imposed by this section shall go to the informer and the other half to the Treasury of the State, and the officer making the arrest of the party convicted shall be deemed the informer.

Information—how obtained. 142. Upon complaint or information of any credible person, on oath, that he knows or has reason to believe and does believe that any person is violating the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-nine of this Article, and that some person named has knowledge of such offence, any Justice of the Peace of the district, or of Dames Quarter district, may summon such person before
