

Oath of office      Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That every Commissioner, before he proceeds to act as such, shall make oath before some Justice of the Peace for Caroline County that he will diligently and faithfully, according to the best of his skill and judgment, perform the duties of Commissioner without favor, partiality or prejudice, and a certificate of such qualifications shall be returned by the said Justice to the Commissioners, to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

Meetings.      Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall meet at such place as they may appoint, within said village, on the second Monday of every month ensuing their election, and as much oftener, by adjournment, as they shall deem necessary.

Appoint officers.      Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, at their first meeting after their election, elect a President of their Board, and appoint a Clerk, a Bailiff, a Treasurer and two Assessors of Taxes, whose duties and qualifications shall be as is hereafter prescribed.

President shall preside.      Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That the President of said Board of Commissioners shall preside at all meetings of the Commissioners, unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, in which event the said Commissioners may select a President pro tempore; he shall sign and cause to be promulgated all by-laws and ordinances of said Board of Commissioners, and shall countersign all orders and drafts drawn by the clerks, under the direction of the said Commissioners, on the Treasurer of said village.

Sign laws.

Clerk—his duties.      Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the Clerk shall be appointed from among the citizens of said village qualified to vote for Commissioners; he shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath before the said Commissioners, or any one of them, that he will well and faithfully perform the duties of his office as prescribed by this Article, or which may be prescribed by any by-laws or ordinance of said Commissioners, to the best of his skill and judgment; he shall sign all drafts or orders for money drawn by the Commissioners on the Treasurer, and shall keep a record of the proceedings