

Assessors. Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the assessors shall be appointed from among the citizens of said village entitled to vote for Commissioners of said village, and before they shall proceed to act as such they shall take an oath before a Justice of the Peace for Caroline County, that they will assess and value all the property of every sort within said village without favor, affection, partiality or prejudice, to the best of their skill and judgment; they shall enter and record in a book or books to be provided for the purpose, an accurate and fair account of all property of every sort within the said village, and the valuation thereof, together with an alphabetical list of the owners thereof, which shall be returned by them to the Commissioners, on or before the thirtieth day of June in each and every year, and which any person interested may inspect without charge; and if any one shall feel aggrieved at the valuation and assessment of his, her or their property by said assessors, he, she or they may appeal from such valuation to the Commissioners, at any time within two weeks from the return of the said assessment, and, upon good cause being shown, the said Commissioners may make any alteration in said assessment which they may deem proper and right; and for the purpose of hearing and determining the appeals provided for by this section, the said Commissioners, in addition to the meetings hereinbefore required to be held, shall meet daily, Sundays excepted, during the two weeks next succeeding the thirtieth day of June in each and every year, at such time and place as they shall designate, and shall give five days previous notice thereof, by advertisements to be posted at the Hotel and the Academy in said village, and such other public places as they may deem necessary.

Alphabetical lists. Assess valuation. Meetings.

Open or extend streets. Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners have full power to open, extend, widen, close or straighten any street, lane or alley in said village, which in their judgment the public welfare and convenience may require.

Levy—how to be used. Sec. 19. Be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may levy upon the assessable property within said village, by direct tax, not exceeding fifty cents in the hundred dollars, such sum as they
