

SEC. 3. The charges for publication of the legal notices, advertisements and orders required to be published as aforesaid shall not exceed the rates charged by other daily papers of the city, and shall be subject to revision and alteration from time to time by the said Supreme Bench.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Which were severally read and adopted,

And the bill as amended ordered to be printed, and made the order of the day for Friday, March 4th.

Mr. Wiley, Chairman of a Select Committee, (the rules being suspended,) reported without amendment,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to enable the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to subscribe to the amount of one million of dollars to the capital stock of the Valley Railroad Company, incorporated by the State of Virginia.

Which was read a second time.

Mr. Wiley moved that the bill be read a third time this day, under the provisions of section 27, Article 3 of the Constitution.
