NEGATIVE.—None.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Neill, (the rules being suspended,)

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill entitled an Act to alter and amend an Act passed at January session, 1854, chapter 60, entitled an Act to incorporate a Society in Washington county, to be styled the Agricultural and Mechanical Association of Washington county, and also an Act passed at January session, 1867, chapter 200, entitled an Act to revive and continue in force the Act of 1854, chapter 60, entitled an Act to incorporate a Society in Washington county, to be styled the Agricultural and Mechanical Association of Washington county, so as to convert said Association into a joint stock corporation, and to legalize certain acts heretofore performed by said Association.

Said bill being upon a third reading,

Mr. Neill, by unanimous consent, submitted the following amendments :

In the twelfth line of section 2, strike out all after the word "election," down to the word "for," in the 11th line of said section.

After the word "stockholder," in the 12th line of the 2d section, add, until said shares of stock shall amount to five, but no stockholder shall cast more than five votes, no matter how many shares of stock he may hold.
