

Add at the end of section 7: that the State's Attorney, or any person or persons prosecuting on the part of the State, if he or they shall think full justice has not been done by the judgment of the Justice of the Peace, shall be at liberty to appeal from the judgment of said Justice within ten days from the rendition thereof, and the Court to which such appeal is taken shall try the case de novo, and determine the same according to the law and equity of the matter.

Which was adopted.

The bill as amended was then read a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Sanner, (the rules being suspended,)

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill entitled an Act to repeal an Act passed at January session, 1866, entitled an Act to repeal section 9, of the Act of January session, 1866, chapter 119, incorporating the Union Railroad Company of Baltimore, and re-enacting the same with amendments, and also to add additional sections thereto, to repeal the 4th, 6th, 9th and 11th sections, incorporating said Company, and re-enact the same with amendments, and further, to amend the charter of said Company.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

Mr. Merrick submitted the following amendment:

Sec. 4, strike out all after the word "Baltimore," in line 20, to the end of the section.

Pending the consideration of which,

Mr. Meekins moved that the further consideration thereof be postponed, and the bill referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Decided in the negative.

The question then recurring upon the adoption of the amendment submitted by Mr. Merrick,

It was rejected.

The bill was then read a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Marshall, (the rules being suspended,) submitted the following order:

Ordered, That this House take a recess until 8 o'clock, P. M., and when the House adjourns to-night, it adjourns to meet Monday next, March 14, 1870.

Which was read and
