So the amendment was stricken out.

The bill, as amended, was then ordered to be engrossed.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message :

BY THE SENATE,
March 18, 1870,

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message asking the appointment of a Committee of conference to take into consideration the amendments proposed to the House bill in relation to the Franklin Bank, and concur therein.

We have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Kimmel and Snyder.

By order,

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the House proceeded to the consideration of the bill entitled an Act to repeal sections 37, 38, 39 and 40 of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled "Licenses," and to substitute in lieu thereof the following sections.

Said bill being upon a third reading,

Mr. Merrick moved that the futher consideration thereof be postponed, and that the House do now proceed to the consideration of the bill, entitled an Act making appropriations for the support of the government for the year ending the first day of January, 1872.

Decided in the negative.

The order of the day was then proceeded with.

Mr. Meekins moved a suspension of the rules to enable him to submit an amendment to the bill.

Decided in the negative.

Mr. Merrick, (by unanimous consent,)

Submitted the following amendments :
