So the Minority Report of the Committee, being the bill reported by Mr. Blake,

Was substituted for the unfavorable report of the Committee.

And the bill was then read a first time.

The question then recurring upon concurring in the second division of the motion submitted by Mr. Blake,

It was concurred in, and the bill ordered to be printed.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The House proceeded to the consideration of the first order of the day, being

The bill entitled an Act to provide for the creation and regulation of incorporated companies in the State of Maryland.

Said bill being upon a second reading.

Pending which,

On motion of Mr. Biddle,

The further consideration thereof was postponed,

And the House proceeded to the consideration of the next order of the day, being

The bill entitled an Act to repeal an Act passed at the session of 1868, entitled "Public Education," providing a general system of Free Public Schools for the State of Maryland, and to repeal all laws inconsistent therewith, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

Mr. Harrington submitted the following amendment:
