

The Senate bill entitled an Act to refund Thomas Claggett, of Prince George's county, moneys erroneously paid by him to the Inspectors of Tobacco in Baltimore City, for outage and storage.

Which was read a second time.

Also, reported

The Senate bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of money to pay John Feast for labor done and materials furnished, in improving the grounds within the enclosure of the Governor's Mansion.

And asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the same, and that said bill be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Committee was discharged, and the bill so referred.

Mr. Griswold, Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to settle and adjust the Boundary Line between the State of Virginia and Maryland.

Which was read a second time.

Mr. Groome, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal, amend and re-enact section 114, of Article XCIII. of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Debts," as amended and re-enacted by chapter 142, of January Session, 1862,

Reported back the same favorably, with proposed amendment.

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

In section 114, line 1, strike out all after the word "shall," and insert "enter in a suitable book to be provided for by him that purpose, all claims against a decedent, in regular order as they are passed by the Orphan's Court or Register of Wills, giving the date of the passage, the name of the creditor, the character of such claim, whether open account, note, bond, bill obligatory, judgment or other evidence of debt, and the amount thereof, if an open account, the interest due thereon up to the date of the passage, shall be stated separately; if a note, bond, bill obligatory, judgment or other evidence of debt, the date thereof and the date from which interest begins to run, shall also be stated, and other particulars of such claims, and the entry of a claim upon such book, shall be taken as notice to the administrator of its existence, and in