

Mr. Stewart, Chairman of the Committee on Militia, reported favorably,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to release the bonds of captains of military companies from liability for non-return of uniforms in certain specified cases.

Which was read a second time.

Mr. Stone, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, reported unfavorably,

A bill entitled an Act supplement to an Act, passed at January Session, 1867, chapter 247, entitled an Act to establish and incorporate an Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb of the State of Maryland, and also an Act passed at January Session, 1868, chapter 409, entitled an Act to amend and add additional sections to the Act of 1867, chapter 247, also an Act passed at January Session, 1870, chapter 422, entitled an Act supplementary to the Act passed at January Session, 1867, chapter 247, entitled an Act to establish an Act to establish an Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb of the State of Maryland and its supplements.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the unfavorable report of the Committee,

Mr. Bowie moved to substitute the bill for the unfavorable report of the Committee.

The question recurring upon sustaining the motion,

Mr. Bowie demanded the previous question.

The question then being, "shall the main question be now put?"

It was decided in the affirmative.

The question then recurring upon concurring in the motion to substitute the bill for the unfavorable report,

Mr. Turner demanded the yeas and nays.
