Act to amend Article XXI , of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," by amending and re-enacting certain sections and adding thereto further sections and to re-enact the same with amendments, so as elect the Councilmen of Hagerstown, by the voters in their respective wards of said town, and authorize the Justices of the Peace to enforce the ordinances relative to crime and punishments;

Which was read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Chapman, (the rules being suspended,) the House proceeded to the consideration of

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal an Act passed at January Session, 1870, chapter 61; entitled an Act for the protection of fish and terrapins in the tributaries of the Potomac River, lying in St. Mary's county, and to regulate the time and manner of catching and taking fish and terrapins in that portion of the Potomac River between Cobb's Point in Charles county, and Point Lockout in St. Mary's county; and to substitute the following in lieu thereof.

Said bill being upon a third reading,

On motion of Mr. Chapman,

The further consideration thereof was postponed, and the bill recommitted to the Committee reporting the same.

Mr. Groome, Chairman of the Committee on Federal Relations, reported favorably,

The Senate bill entitled an Act granting to the United States of America, a further addition to the site of the Naval School at Annapolis, and citing the jurisdiction over the same.

Which was read a second time.

Mr. Colton, of St. Mary's, Chairman of a Select Committee, to whom was referred

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal an Act passed at January Session, 1870, chapter 61, entitled an Act for the protection of fish in the tributaries of the Potomac River, lying in St. Mary's county, and to regulate the time and manner of catching and taking fish and terrapin in that portion of the Potomac River, between Cobb's Point in Charles county, and Point Lookout in St. Mary's county, and substitute the following in lieu thereof, reported the same favorably.

The bill was then read a third time and passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
