Said bill was then returned to the Senate, together with the following message :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 30, 1872.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We herewith return House bill which had but two readings in the House of Delegates, before it was sent over to your Honorable Body, the second reading being had thereof on March 20th, 1872, and endorsed on bill through error, as "read a third time and passed by yeas and nays." The House has given the bill a third reading this day, and passed the same by yeas and nays.

We respectfully ask your Honorable Body to pass the said bill again.

By order,
MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.
