Said bill was then returned to the Senate.

Mr. Streett, from the Committee on Conference, appointed to consider the disagreeing votes of the two Houses, upon the Senate amendments to the House bill entitled an Act making further appropriations for the support of the Government for the year ending the thirty-first day of December, 1872, submitted the following REPORT.

The Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on House bill No. 150, having had the same under consideration, recommend to their respective Bodies, that the Senate recede from its amendments, Nos. 5, 6, 8 and 9. Also from its amendment No. 14, and recommend that under head "Miscellaneous," line 26, after the word "resort," strike out all to the word "for" in line 29. Under head "Militia," the Senate recede from its amendment, No. 15; and under the head "Baltimore City," from its amendment No. 16; and recommend that the House concur in the other amendments of the Senate.
