So the motion to postpone indefinitely did not prevail.

The question then recurred upon the third of the bill,

Pending which,

Mr. Clark, of Baltimore City, (the rules being suspended,) submitted the following REPORT.

In conformity with the instructions of the House of Delegates, your Committee, with that of the Senate, waited upon His Excellency, the Governor, to inform him that the General Assembly would be ready to adjourn at 12 o'clock, mid-night, and inquire what further communications he might have to lay before this Body:
