

There was paid for the Legislative printing of the January Session of 1864, $20,277 85, as follows :

Bull & Tuttle, (Printers to House of Delegates,).....	$12,719 10
Mittag & Sweany, (Printers to the Senate,)...	3,266 60
H. P. Bayley, (Printing the Laws,).....	4,292 15
	<hr/>
	$20,277 85

To H. P. Bayley, for the printing of the January Session of 1865.....$45,006 99

To Haverstick & Longnecker, for the printing of the extra Session of 1866, (30 days,)..... 21,400 32

To Henry A. Lucas, for the printing of the January Session of 1867, under contract made with the Comptroller, in pursuance of Act of 1864, chapter 405..... 63,445 89

To Wm. Thompson, of R., for the printing of the January Session of 1868..... 48,500 00

This was the price agreed upon between the Legislature and Wm. Thompson, the contract made by Wm. Thompson with the Comptroller, under chapter 405, of 1864, having been annulled by the Legislature, and a stated price for the entire work fixed.

To Wm. Thompson, of R., for himself, S. Sands Mills, and Luther F. Colton, for the printing of the January Session of 1870.....$40,000 00

There was paid for the printing for the Constitutional Convention of 1864, as follows :

To H. P. Bayley, (Printers to the Convention,).....	$17,372 45
To C. C. Fulton & Co , (for publishing the Constitution,).....	2,707 00
	<hr/>
	$20,079 45

To George Colton, for the printing of the Convention of 1867..... $9,879 07

I also enclose you copies of such bids for printing as I find filed in this office, viz :

Bids for printing for the Legislature of 1864, marked "A."

Bids for printing for the Legislature of 1866, marked "B."

Bids for printing for the Legislature of 1867, marked "C."

Bids for printing for the Legislature of 1868, marked "D."

Bids for printing for the Legislature of 1870, marked "E."

Bids for printing for the Constitutional Convention, 1864, marked "F."

Bids for printing for the Constitutional Convention, 1867, marked "G."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LEVIN WOOLFORD,
Comptroller.