

MONDAY, February 19, 1872.

Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Henderson.

Present at roll call the following Senators :

Messrs. President, Compton, Carroll, Crawford, Denson, Downs, Dennis, Earle, Stephenson, Spates, Sellman, Steiner, Timmons, Wilson, Williams—15.

The proceedings of Friday were read and approved.

Mr. Denson desired it entered on the Journal that, had he been in his seat when the vote was taken on the passage of the bill relating to the inspection of tobacco and tobacco inspectors, he would have voted for said bill.

The President laid before the Senate the following communications from the Adjutant General :

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Annapolis, Feb. 16, 1872.

HON. HENRY SNYDER,

President of the Senate :

SIR: In obedience to the order of the Senate, passed on the 12th inst., I have the honor to transmit the enclosed statement, showing the number of men drafted during the war, and the number of substitutes furnished up to March, 1863, which constitute all the information that the records of the office enable me to supply.

There is nothing on the files of the office showing the "computations paid," nor the number of those who have not already received their bounty.

Respectfully,

CHAS. H. McBLAIR,
Adjutant General.
