

Resolved, That having left Fatherland to enjoy the free institutions of this country, we would not overthrow but perpetuate them ; and as the wisest statesmen concur with evidence of history, that the Sabbath is the great bulwark of civil and religious liberty ; and as to make it a day of dissipation for some, is to make it a day of work for others ; is calculated to entice from many their week's earnings, before the wants of their families are supplied ; to degrade laboring people below the hope of improving their condition ; to increase vice, crime, poverty and consequent burdensome taxes ; to produce discontent and recklessness among the masses, and bring on the country the terrors of Communism ; we solemnly appeal to our legislators to preserve us from such calamities.

Resolved, That the prompt execution of the Sunday Law, by the civil authorities, calls forth our most grateful support, and we pledge the same to the legislators that protect it.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to respectfully present copies of these resolutions to the Senate and House of Delegates, at Annapolis.

By order,

WM. NUMSEN,
President.

A. H. NEEKER,
Secretary.

Which were read and ordered to be entered on the Journal.

Mr. Spates, from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably,

The House bill, entitled an Act to repeal section 7, of an Act passed January Session, 1870, chapter 387, entitled an Act to incorporate the Washington, Colesville and Ashton Turnpike Company, and to re-enact the same so as to read as follows.

Which was read the second time.

Also, from a Select Committee, reported favorably,

The House bill, entitled an Act to continue in force an Act passed at December Session, 1843, entitled an Act to incorporate the German Union Beneficial Society of Cumberland.

Which was read the second time.

Mr. Crawford, from a Select Committee, reported

A bill, entitled an Act to repeal an Act entitled an Act to repeal section 1, of an Act passed at January Session,
