NEGATIVE—None.

Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Fields, from the Joint Committee on Printing, submitted the following REPORT.

To the Senate of Maryland:

The Joint Committee on Printing, report that the Printers of the General Assembly have delivered all Documents ordered by both Houses of the General Assembly, both in English and German, with the exception of the School Report, which owing to the lateness of the time, in which it was received, will be ready in a few days for delivery to the members of the General Assembly. They have selected and authorized Samuel T. McCullough, Esq., to index the Journal of the House of Delegates, Stephenson Archer of John, Esq., to index the Journal of the Senate, and Senate and House of Delegates Resolutions and Documents, and Thomas H. Moore, Esq., to index the Laws passed by this General Assembly, at the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars each, payable by the Comptroller when the work is completed.

We would also state, that the printing matter has been executed in an excellent and workmanlike manner, on good paper, with neatness and dispatch. The laws, so far as approved by the Governor, have been put in print and will be ready for delivery on or before the first day of June, 1872.

The printing matter, as ordered by the present General Assembly, has far exceeded that of the last, and the Com-
