

- April 26, 1870—William H. Bazzand, Justice of the Peace 16th ward, vice James McFarland, resigned.
- April 29, 1870—William H. Hayward, Justice of the Peace 16th ward, vice Thomas H. Hooper, resigned.
- May 17, 1870—John T. Gorsuch, Justice of the Peace 7th ward, vice Joseph Mehling, resigned.
- May 26, 1870—William H. Walsh, Justice of the Peace 4th ward, vice E. F. Perkins, resigned.
- July 8, 1870—Samuel Glanville, Officer of Registration 10th ward, vice Y. P. Stone, resigned.
- July 16, 1870—Edward Higgins, Auctioneer, vice Wm. A. Disney failed to qualify.
- Aug. 1, 1870—Wm. A. Disney, Justice of the Peace 19th ward, vice R. W. Gale, resigned.
- Aug. 11, 1870—J. Lewis Harzog, Officer of Registration 11th, ward, vice James McHenry, declined.
- Aug. 26, 1870—George W. Davis, Justice of the Peace 18th ward, vice E. B. Mullen, resigned.
- Oct. 18, 1870—Charles Schwartzhaupt, Justice of the Peace 4th ward, vice George Krantz, deceased.
- Oct. 18, 1870—Thomas Coburn, Officer of Registration 8th ward, vice George Coburn, resigned.
- Nov. 17, 1870—Lawrence D. Deitz, Auctioneer, vice J. B. Cannon, declined.
- Nov. 19, 1870—Marcey Fountain, Auctioneer, vice George W. Davis, declined.
- Jan. 5, 1871—Benjamin C. Booker, Auctioneer, vice Wm. H. Walsh, declined.
- Feb. 9, 1871—Robert W. Hays, Justice of the Peace 5th ward, vice A. P. Waterman, deceased.
- Feb. 28, 1871—George J. Kries, Justice of the Peace 14th ward, vice A. H. Pennington, deceased.
- Feb. 28, 1871—Lewis A. Jamart, Officer of Registration 5th ward, vice R. W. Hays, resigned.
- April 12, 1871—Charles C. Quinn, Justice of the Peace 14th ward, vice J. B. O'Donnel, deceased.