

Special Police, shall be filled by the County Commissioners of the county wherein such vacancies may happen.

May appeal. SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That any party or parties against whom any Justice of the Peace may render a judgment, under this Act, either to pay a fine or of condemnation of property, may at any time within ten days from the rendition of such judgment, appeal from such judgment to the Circuit Court of the county wherein the same may have been rendered; but no execution or sale shall be To give bond stayed, unless the party appealing shall give bond, with two sufficient securities, to be approved of by the Justice, to the State of Maryland, in double the value of the property condemned, or of the fine imposed, as the case may be, with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect to the Circuit Court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the value of the property condemned and fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case judgment shall be confirmed.

Fine for violating. SEC. 18. And be enacted, That if any person shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable for the fine imposed for such violation, and the same may be recovered by action of debt, in the name of the State, before a Justice of the Peace of either Harford, Kent or Cecil county, or by indictment in the Circuit Court of either of said counties; and when any person is convicted of the violation of any of the provisions of this Act, and refuses or neglects to pay the fine for which judgment is given against him, he shall be committed to the county jail for a period of time not less than forty and not more than forty days, but the party or parties so committed to be released on the payment of the fine, costs and jail expenses. How recoverable.

Penalty for refusal.

Time intervening. SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That for the time intervening between the time of the passage of this Act and the thirty-first day of March next ensuing, each person applying for a license for a sink-box, or for a sneak-boat, shall pay for each respectively, a proportionate sum for said time or for any shorter time.