

- enlarging, improving and repairing said Court House, in whole or in part, or for furnishing material for the same or any part thereof, and shall take good and sufficient bonds, with approved security conditional for the faithful performance of the contracts so made, and such bond or bonds shall be liable for any damages that the county may sustain by the non-performance of any of the conditions of said contracts.
- Damages.
- Chargeable. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That no part of said bonded debt or interest thereon, provided for by this Act, shall be chargeable to or collected from the inhabitants of that portion of Allegany county embraced within the lines of a new county, after the same shall have been laid off and organized in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the State; but until such new county shall be laid off and organized, the said bonded debt and interest shall be chargeable to, and collected from, the inhabitants of the whole county, as now organized, and known as Allegany county.
- New county.
- Contract for furniture. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to contract for such furniture for said Jail as may be necessary, and for said Court House and Clerk's office and Register's office, such furniture, cases, shelves and other material, as may be necessary for the comfort and convenience of the occupants, or for the transaction of the business of said officers, and pay for the same in the manner provided in the preceding sections.
- Dispose of old jail. SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners shall be and they are hereby authorized, directed and required to use, remove or dispose of such parts of the old Jail, and the buildings and walls connected therewith or surrounding the same, and to alter and repair such parts of said buildings as they shall not so remove in such manner that the same may be adapted to the use of the County offices, and to surround the said premises with a pavement and proper open railing, or such other fence as they may think proper, and the proceeds
- Alter and repair.