

compensation therefor, and said trustees, as a ^{Compensat'n} compensation for all their services under this trust, shall be entitled to receive a commission, to be agreed upon between them and said company, but, not exceeding two per cent. on all moneys received by them from said Canton Company under the provisions of the foregoing second section, and said charges, expenses and commissions, shall be deducted by said trustees out of any moneys which may come into their hands under any of the provisions of this trust.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of ^{Vacancies.} maintaining the succession of said trustees, whenever and as often as a vacancy or vacancies shall occur in the number of said trustees, by death, resignation or disability to perform the duties of the trust, the trustee or trustees existing at the time of the occurrence of such vacancy or vacancies, shall be authorized, and are hereby charged with the duty to appoint, by deed duly executed, acknowledged and recorded, a suitable and proper person or persons <sup>Duty to appoint.</sup> to fill such vacancy or vacancies, and every person who may be thus appointed, from time to time, to fill a vacancy as aforesaid shall be and is hereby invested with the same estate, rights and powers, and is made subject to the same duties as an original trustee by this Act appointed.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its acceptance by the stock- ^{In force.} holders of the Canton Company, in general meeting assembled.

Approved March 14, 1872.