

- Extension. extension of said street or avenue, proceed to lay off the same to such a point beyond two miles from the line of said city as shall be designated in such application, and in laying off any main street or streets, avenue or avenues, or any extension thereof, leading out of the City of Baltimore, the said Street Commissioners may lay off the same or any part or parts thereof, from the limits of the city to the terminus of such street or avenue, as proposed to be extended, of such width as in their judgment the public convenience may require; and all such notices shall be given and proceedings had and taken in reference to the laying off and condemnation and grading and paving of any such extended street or avenue as are required by the provisions of said Act of eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter ninety-nine, to be given, had and taken in reference to the streets, avenues, squares and alleys within the limits of two miles from the line of Baltimore city.
- Notices given
- Laid off. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That whenever any street, avenue, square or alley shall hereafter be laid off and condemned, and opened under the provisions of said Act of eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter ninety-nine, or of this Act, and whenever the owner or owners of the majority of front feet of ground bounding and fronting on said street, avenue, square or alley, or any part or parts thereof, shall petition, under the provisions of said original Act, for the
- Grading and paving. grading, paving or making of the same, the said owner or owners may designate in such petition the nature and character of the material to be used in the construction of the said street, avenue, square or
- Material to be used. alley, and also the manner and material in and with which the same shall be guttered, curbed or otherwise constructed, and the said Street Commissioners, in proceeding to advertise for proposals and to contract for the making of said street, avenue, square or alley, as provided by said original Act, shall adopt the mode of construction of such street, avenue, square or alley and the material to be used therein as shall be designated in said petition, and the cost of such construction shall be levied and assessed as provided by said Act.