

to the informer and the residue into the treasury of the school fund for said county.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any person or persons using or employing any such canoe or boat in taking or catching oysters with scoops within the waters of said county, described in section one of this Act, without a license, shall, upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace in and for said county, before whom such case is tried, shall be fined not less than twenty-five, nor more than one hundred dollars, or forfeit the canoe or boat in possession of the party so offending, together with the papers, furniture and tackle on board of said canoe or boat at the time of her seizure, in the discretion of said Justice of the Peace. Without a license. Penalty for.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county shall be entitled to fifty cents each for every license granted under this Act, to be charged to the applicant in addition to the rates of license. Clerk's fee.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That for the protection of the young oysters in the waters of Fishing Bay and Honga River, in said county, and south and west of said waters, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to carry or remove oysters from said waters beyond the limits of said county, during the months beginning with the fifteenth day of May, and terminating with the first day of September in each year, and any person or persons violating the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars, and a confiscation of the boat or vessel used in the violation of this provision, to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace, in and for said county, as debts of this kind are collected, one-half to go to the informer, the other half to be paid in to the school fund of said county, by the Justice of the Peace before whom the case shall have been tried. Removal prohibited. Penalty for violating.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said clerk of the said court shall pay the money arising from the issuing of licenses under this Act, into the treasury of the school fund for said county, on or before the Disposition of money.