

after, and oftener if required by the County Commissioners, the amount collected by them for said county, until the collections are completed, and on failure to make such monthly or other payments, each delinquent collector may be removed from office by the County Commissioners, and another appointed in his stead, and at the end of the time allowed for the collections aforesaid by said collectors, they, and each of them, shall make to the County Commissioners a full and complete return, under oath, of the county taxes collected by them, of the whole amount of taxes placed in their hands for collection for the county since their appointment, and also an alphabetical list of all delinquent tax-payers in their respective tax collection districts and the sum due by each of same, which list the County Commissioners are authorized to have printed in at least one newspaper published in said county, and on failure to pay over to the County Treasurer all taxes then collected by them, and to complete within twelve months from the day of receiving said taxes for collection, the collection and return of the whole amount thereof to the County Treasurer, except such sums as the County Commissioners, upon examination of the returns of said collectors, may determine to be and have been uncollectable, their bond shall be liable for the same, and the County Commissioners may cause suit to be brought for the county taxes, so in arrear, on the bond given as afore herein required, and the County Commissioners shall require each of said collectors to make a statement, under oath, to them on the first day of June next succeeding the levy of said taxes, of the amount of such county taxes collected by him, such collector, from each person, with the name of said person, and the said collectors shall each hold such office for one year from the first Monday in June in the year of his appointment; or in case of his death, removal, refusal to give the required bond, or disqualification of the first appointee, then the second appointee in that year in such stead from the day of his appointment, until the first Monday of June in the next succeeding year, and until a successor be appointed for the election district or districts for which such first appointee was

Failure to make monthly payments.

Full and complete return.

Publish delinquents.

Enter suit.

Vacancy.

Term of office