

Thoroughgood, Scott Brewington, and Henry S. Brewington, Trustees of the Methodist Protestant Church, in Salisbury, Wicomico county, did, on the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, sell at public auction the lot or parcel of land lying and being in that part of Salisbury Town, known as Camden, on the east side of Camden Avenue, upon which is situated the old Methodist Protestant Church building, being the same lot which was conveyed to the said trustees, or their predecessors in that capacity, by Nathan Gordy, deceased, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sale made by said trustees be and the same is hereby ratified and made valid in law, and that the said trustees, or a majority of them, be also authorized and empowered to convey the title to the said property in fee, by deed to be executed, acknowledged and recorded according to law. Sale ratified and made valid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized and empowered to sell said property to any purchaser or purchasers, and to give a good and sufficient title to the same in fee. Authorized to sell.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the trustees aforesaid be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell the Methodist Protestant Parsonage property, situate in that part of Salisbury Town, known as Camden, and to give a good and sufficient title to the same in fee. Authorized to sell.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

Approved March 28, 1872.