

ceived or derived from said estate, for the payment of said creditors' claims, with interest thereon, if the money or assets are sufficient to pay them in full, if not sufficient to pay said creditors in full with interest, then said creditors shall be paid pro rata. If any or all of said creditors are dead, then payment as aforesaid shall be made to their legal representatives or heirs, by said permanent trustee.

In force.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted as aforesaid, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. All laws inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed, as respects this Act only, but as to none other.

Approved March 28, 1872.

CHAPTER 150.

AN ACT to add an additional section to the Public Local Laws of Allegany county, article one, Allegany county, and to repeal sections twenty-four, twenty-five and twenty-six thereof, and to re-enact the same with amendments, to read as follows, relating to the City of Cumberland :

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an additional section be added to the Public Local Laws of Allegany county, article one, Allegany county, and that sections twenty-four, twenty-five and twenty-six thereof be and they are hereby repealed, and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows :

Re-enacted.

City divided into election wards.

23. The said city is hereby divided into two election wards, to be known as the "first ward" and "second ward;" the first ward shall embrace all that portion of the city lying north and east of the National or turnpike road leading from Baltimore through said city to Wheeling; and the election polls in said ward shall be held at the market-house, and shall be called the "first ward polls;" the second ward