

dollars each for every dog belonging to, or kept by any of the inhabitants of the town, to be recovered and collected as other taxes, and shall compel the bailiff to kill every dog within the town whose owner cannot be ascertained, or whose ostensible owner shall evade the payment of the tax.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners may cause any of the streets and alleys in said town to be paved whenever and in such manner as they shall think proper.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That the bailiff of the town shall be the supervisor of streets, lanes and alleys of said town, and for neglect of duty shall be liable to be proceeded against, fined and punished as supervisors of roads in said county; and the bailiff of the town shall keep the lanes, streets and alleys in repair under the direction and control of the commissioners.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That the limits of said town shall be defined as beginning at a post on the lower point of "Great Cove," on Little Annamessex River, and thence running southwardly by a direct line to a post on "Long Point," on said river, and thence eastward across said river to a post, on what is known as "Hammock Point," and thence by a direct line to J. H. Serling's house, on the Cove road, and thence northward by a direct line to "Lankford's Ditch," thence by and with said ditch to the river, and to the place of beginning, a plat of which shall be made out under the direction of the commissioners of said town, and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset county, to be there recorded.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That if land or other property shall be condemned in the extension of the limits of said town, or in opening new streets, lanes, or alleys, or in widening or extending existing streets, lanes or alleys, or for any other uses or purposes, of the said town, and the owner or owners of said property cannot agree with the commissioners, as to the value thereof, or the owner or owners of said property are married women, under