

Duty of the Sheriff.

twenty-one years, insane or lunatic, the value thereof shall be ascertained by a jury of twelve disinterested men of the county, having no assessable property within the limits of said town, and the said commissioners shall issue their warrant to the Sheriff of said county, to summon such jury, and they shall meet at Crisfield, on a day to be fixed by the Sheriff, of which the owner or owners of the property to be condemned shall have notice, and having been sworn by the Sheriff, without partiality or prejudice, to value the property, and the damages sustained by the owner, by means of such condemnation, according to the best of their skill and judgment; shall proceed to make such valuation, and the Sheriff shall return the inquisition under his hand and seal, and under the hands and seals of the jury, to the commissioners of said town, to be recorded among the land records of said county, and the said condemnation shall, upon payment or tender, to the owner or owners of the property condemned, of the damages assessed by the inquisition, vest the property condemned in the said commissioners.

To provide a market house

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the commissioners may establish and provide a market house in the said town, for the use and convenience of the inhabitants thereof, and may, by by-laws and ordinances, provide for and regulate the sale of all provisions brought to said town for sale, the trying and adjusting the scales, weights and measures, used at the market by the standards of the county, and the seizure and sale to the highest bidder of any found false or untrue, the renting of the stalls and shambles of the market, and for the seizure and sale for the use of the commissioners, of all butter in prints or parcels, brought to the said market for sale found wanting in weight, or unsound, or unwholesome.

Bailiff to have charge of.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That the Bailiffs of the town shall have charge and supervision over the market house and markets therein, under the direction and control of the commissioners.

Aggrieved may appeal.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That if any person shall feel aggrieved by any seizure made by the bailiffs, he may, within three days after such seizure, appeal