

cents for each and every dog killed by him, and to one-half the fines recovered, as hereinbefore provided, upon his information and evidence, under the provisions of this Act.

Refusal or neglect of Constable.

SEC. 188. And be it enacted, That every such Constable who shall neglect or refuse to discharge the duties imposed upon him by this Act, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars and costs, for each and every case of failure or refusal to perform his said duties, to be recovered by an action before any Justice of the Peace of said county, whose duty it is hereby declared to be, to collect said fines, to pay over one-half thereof to the informer or informers, and the other half to the said County Commissioners of said county, who may allow such compensation for such duty as may be reasonable and just.

Bond of every such Constable.

SEC. 189. And be it enacted, That the bond of every such Constable shall be liable for the amounts received by him, under the provisions of this Act, and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to proceed against the bond of every such officer who shall fail promptly to pay over the money received by any such officer, under the provisions of this Act, by the most summary process now authorized by law.

Penalty for stealing or entic'g away.

SEC. 190. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall steal, entice or carry away any dog whose owner shall have complied with the provisions of this Act, every such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and upon prosecution and conviction thereof by any tribunal, now or hereafter to be authorized, by law, to try such offence, shall be fined a sum equal to the value of such dog or dogs, to go to the owner or owners of such dogs so stolen, enticed or carried away, and in addition thereto, shall suffer imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one nor more than six months, in the discretion of the court, or the other tribunal trying such case.

Any dog seen killing sheep.

SEC. 191. And be it enacted, That if any dog shall be seen killing sheep, and upon information to the owner or keeper thereof, by one or more persons, he, she or they shall refuse to kill said dog, it shall be the duty