

person not a resident of the State, violating this section, shall, upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, be subject to a fine of not less than fifty or not more than one hundred dollars, and forfeit the boat or vessel, and all nets, seines or tackle so used in taking fish; the proceeds of said fine and forfeited property, after paying officers' fees, to be paid to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where tried, for the use of the State. Penalty for violating.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That upon information of any person made to any Justice of the Peace of either of said counties, the said Justice shall issue his warrant to some Constable or Sheriff, for the arrest of said persons violating the preceding section, and have the said person or persons brought before him for trial. Issue warrant and arrest.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any party or parties against whom any Justice of the Peace may render a judgment under this Act, either to pay a fine or of condemnation of property, may at any time within ten days from the rendition of such judgment, appeal from such judgment to the Circuit Court of said counties respectively; but no execution or sale shall be stayed, unless the party appealing, shall give bond, with security, to the State of Maryland, in double the value of the property condemned, or of the fine imposed, as the cases may be; said security or securities to be resident or residents of the State, and who shall swear or affirm that he or they are worth double the amount of the property condemned, with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to pay the value of the property condemned and fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings in case such judgment shall be confirmed, and in all cases of appeal either party shall be entitled to trial by jury. Judgment. May appeal from. To give security.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

Approved April 1, 1872.