

CHAPTER 194.

AN ACT giving the sanction of the General Assembly of Maryland to the bequest of a legacy in the last will and testament of George Cleaden, late of Cecil county, deceased, to the Methodist Protestant Church at Bay View, in Cecil county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, George Cleaden, late of Cecil county, deceased, by his last will [will] and testament directed his executor therein named to invest one-half of the net proceeds of his estate in real estate or some safe stock, under the direction of the Orphans' Court of Cecil county, as a permanent fund, and devised and bequeathed the yearly interest thereon to a certain Hannah Warburton, for and during the period of her natural life, and at her death, to the Methodist Protestant Church at Bay View, in Cecil county, Maryland: therefore Sanction' given to bequest.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sanction is hereby given to the devise and bequest in the last will and testament, now of record in the office of the Register of Wills of Cecil county, Maryland, of George Cleaden, late of said county, deceased, in favor of the Methodist Protestant Church at Bay View, in Cecil county aforesaid; and the trustees of the said church are hereby empowered to receive from the executor of said deceased on the death of Hannah Warburton, of Cecil county aforesaid, the whole amount of money devised and bequeathed to the said church; or to receive the same during the life time of the said Hannah Warburton, with her concurrence and assent, and to execute to said executor a valid release therefor.

Approved April 1, 1872.
