

Completed
three miles.

May erect toll-gate.

Assess persons habitually using.

Proviso

Inconsistent
parts of original Act repealed.

In force.

3. That as soon as said company has completed three miles of said road, by making an artificial bed of stone, the bed of which shall be at least sixteen feet wide, then it may and shall be lawful for said company to erect a toll-gate thereon, and so on from time to time in like distance to erect and fix such and so many toll-gates thereon, and across the said road, as will be necessary and sufficient to collect the tolls and duties provided by the original Act, to which this is a supplement; and the said corporation or company is hereby further authorized and empowered to assess annually, upon each individual or person habitually using said road, between the toll-gates thereof, and not passing or going through any of such toll-gates, such amount to be paid quarterly by the individual or person so assessed, as shall be just and reasonable for such use of said road, and shall have power to collect the same before any Justice of the Peace of the county in which such individual may reside or do business, on an action of debt; provided, no person passing from part of his farm to another part thereof, shall be charged with toll, and, provided further, that this company shall not be authorized to charge toll on any vehicles passing over this road for the purpose of going to or from funerals.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of the original Act of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter ninety-six, and the supplement thereto, passed February eighteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, chapter twenty-seven of the Act to which this is a supplement, as shall be found inconsistent with this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage; the Legislature reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this Act at pleasure.

Approved April 1, 1872.