

Persons violating this Act to pay fine, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons violating the provisions of either of the preceding sections of this Act, shall pay a fine of not less than five, nor more than fifty dollars, and forfeit the boat or boats, and vessel in his or their possession, together with the seine or seines, nets, tackle, and all things on board or in any wise pertaining thereto, at the time the offence may have been committed, and in case any person or persons are charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this Act, the burden of proof of evidence shall be upon the person or persons so charged.

Justice of the Peace to issue warrant for arrest of.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That upon information given upon oath, to any Justice of the Peace of the County of Charles, of any violation of any of the provisions of this article, he shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender or offenders, which shall be directed to the Sheriff or any Constable of the county, to dealt with according to law, and in such warrant it shall not be necessary to name any such offender or offenders, or the owner of any such property, but it shall be sufficient to describe him or them as a person or persons guilty of violating the law, without naming such person or persons.

Arrest without warrant.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted. That it shall be lawful for any citizen or citizens, and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff or any Constable of the said County of Charles, to arrest with or without warrant, any person or persons violating the foregoing sections of this Act, and to take them before some Justice of the Peace of the county for trial under this Act, and to seize the boat or boats and vessel, together with the seines, nets, tackle and all things on board, or in anywise pertaining thereto, used in such violation as aforesaid, and give notice to the owner or owners thereof, if the same can be found, to appear before a Justice of the Peace of Charles county on a certain day, within five days from the time of seizure, to show why the property so seized should not be condemned, and if the owner or owners of the property so seized, evade the service of said notice or cannot be found, then the Sheriff or Constable, or citizen or citizens making the arrest, may give notice by publi-

Seize boats and tackle.