

Grain, any fee or reward from any one, directly or indirectly, for the discharge of my duty, and that I will not buy or sell any grain, or act as agent for any one, or assist in the buying, selling or consigning any grain for any one during the time I shall hold the said office; and in every other respect, fairly and honestly, without prejudice or partiality, will discharge all the duties of Weigher General, or Weigher of Grain, to the best of my skill and judgment, so help me God.

To give bond      SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Weigher General, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties of his office, shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with two securities, to be approved by the Comptroller, in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties hereby imposed him.

Assistant to give bond.      SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That each Assistant Weigher shall give bond to the State, with two securities, to be approved by the Comptroller, in the penalty of five thousand dollars, with a like condition as the bond of the Weigher General.

Failure to perform duties.      SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That in the event of a failure to perform any duties assigned the said Weighers by this article, the said bond or bonds may be put in suit by order of the Comptroller for the benefit of the State, and judgment rendered thereon as on other official bonds.

All grain must be reported to Grain Weighers' office.      SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all grain arriving in the City of Baltimore must be reported to the Grain Weighers' Office, whether by steamers, sail vessels of all descriptions, barges, or canal boats; and it shall be the duty of the Weigher General of Grain to have weighed all grain carried to said city for sale, except grain carried to the city on wagons, carts, railroad cars, or through elevators; provided, however, all grain sent to said city must be weighed by said Weigher General, if the owners of said grain shall request it to be weighed by him. It shall be the duty of the Weigher General to proceed to weigh all grain within at least two hours after the same is reported, and continue weighing until the Duty of the Weigher General.
