

CHAPTER 275.

AN ACT ceding to the United States of America the jurisdiction over certain lands on the Potomac River, in Prince George's county, with the water rights and other rights pertaining thereto, for the site of Fort Foote.

Lands ceded to the United States for a fort.

Courses and distances.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the jurisdiction and control of the lands hereinafter described, or any portion thereof, situate on the Potomac River, in Prince George's county, that may hereafter be conveyed by deed duly executed, acknowledged, and recorded to the United States of America for the site of a fort, and the water, water rights, and all other rights appertaining thereto, whenever the same shall be so conveyed, be and the same is hereby vested in the United States of America for military and naval purposes: beginning for said lands at a stone at or near the shore of the Potomac River, and in the divisional line between the lands of F. W. Rozier and the heirs at law of Benedict Edelin, deceased, and running thence north seven degrees and fifty minutes, east thirteen hundred and ninety-four feet with the Potomac River; thence north eight degrees and fifty-five minutes, west four hundred and seventy-six and five-tenths feet with said river; thence north forty-five degrees and twenty-five minutes, west two hundred and ninety-seven feet with said river; thence north twenty-eight degrees and fifty-five minutes, west four hundred and twenty-nine feet with said river; thence north thirteen degrees and fifty minutes, west sixty-six and five-tenths feet with said river; thence leaving said river, thence west seventy-four degrees, east nine hundred and seven and three-tenths feet; thence south one degree and thirty minutes, east eight hundred and sixty feet; thence south thirty degrees and thirty minutes, east four hundred and five feet; thence north eighty-nine degrees and thirty minutes, east one hundred and sixty-five feet; thence south forty degrees, east three hundred and twenty-nine and five-tenths feet; thence south twenty-four