

CHAPTER 291.

AN ACT to pay Henry O. Connell a sum of money for use of his warehouse as an armory.

WHEREAS, It appears to the General Assembly of Maryland that George W. Clotworthy, Captain of Battery "A," Artillery, Maryland National Guards, Lieut. Lewis E. Herring, and other officers of said battery, are indebted to Henry O. Connell in the sum of one hundred and eighty-six dollars and sixty-seven cents, for the use and occupation of his warehouse in the City of Baltimore, as an armory for said companies of artillery; and whereas, said debt was incurred just prior to the passage of the Act of eighteen hundred and [and] seventy, chapter one hundred and eighty-two, which makes provision for payment of armories; and whereas, said officers became liable in their efforts to promote the public service, and it is just and equitable to relieve them from the payment of the aforesaid debt; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of one hundred and eighty-six dollars and sixty-seven cents be and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any unappropriated funds in the treasury, for the use of said Henry O. Connell, in full satisfaction of his claim hereinabove mentioned; and the Treasurer is hereby authorized, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, to pay to the said Henry O. Connell the said sum of one hundred and eighty-six dollars and sixty-seven cents.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1872.
