

CHAPTER 292.

AN ACT to repeal section twenty of article forty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, title Fish and Fisheries, sub-title Potomac, and to repeal and re-enact with amendments sub-section one of article forty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Potomac."

Repealed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section twenty of article forty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Potomac," be and the same is hereby repealed.

Re-enacted. SUB-SECTION 1. And be it further enacted, That sub-section one, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Potomac," be and the same is hereby repealed, and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Not to catch fish without license. SUB-SEC. 1. No person shall fish in the Potomac River or its tributaries for shad and herring during the season herein prescribed with seines, gill nets or nets of any kind, without having first obtained a license therefor, as hereinafter provided; and no person shall be entitled to obtain such license for fishing with a hauling seine who is not the owner or occupier of some fishing shore on said river, nor shall any be entitled to obtain such license for fishing with gill nets, except bona fide citizens of the counties bordering on said river.

Not entitled to license.

Approved April 1, 1872.