CHAPTER 298.

AN ACT for the relief of the Baltimore City Passenger Railway Company.

WHEREAS, it appears by the books of the Comptroller's office that the Baltimore City Passenger Railway Company is largely indebted to the State of Maryland for State taxes on its capital stock, from the time of its incorporation to the present time; and whereas, no notice was ever given to said company until some time in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, that any State taxes were due by said company; and whereas, said company has since discovered that the capital stock of said company has been in former years taxed to the holders thereof, and the taxes paid thereon to the collectors; therefore <sup>Preamble.</sup>

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in the settlement of said accounts with said Baltimore City Passenger Railway Company for arrears of State taxes on its capital stock, the Comptroller be and he is hereby authorized and required <sup>Comptroller authorized to allow a credit</sup>
