

words: for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors; or, against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors; and that the ballots so cast shall be carefully counted by the judges of such general election, and that said judges shall make a return of such vote to the Judges of the Circuit Court of the county in which said district is situated, which said Judges of the Circuit Court shall, by proclamation in the county, give notice of the result of such election to the citizens of said election district number eight.

To make proclamation.

Majority against.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That when it shall be found by said returns of judges of election and proclamation of said judges, that the majority of the votes of district number eight of said county has been cast against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, that then it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or bodies corporate to sell spirituous liquors in such district.

Violators of this Act to be fined.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, or body corporate shall be guilty of a violation of this Act, in selling spirituous or fermented liquors in election district number eight of said county, when the majority of votes has been cast against such sale, shall on conviction thereof be fined in the sum of not more than three hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars for every such offence, in the discretion of the Court, where such conviction shall take place.

In force.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect thirty days from or after the day of the first general election, which may [here] vote upon this Act.

Repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act shall * and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved April 1, 1872.