

trees off of said public grounds, nor deaden them, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every offence.

Not to throw offensive matter in streets.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That no offensive or putrid vegetable or animal matter or substance, shall be permitted to be cast or thrown upon any of the lots, streets, lanes, alleys or enclosures in the said town of Franklin, to endanger the health and lives of or annoy any of its inhabitants, under the penalty of two dollars for each and every offence, and the further penalty of two dollars for each and every day the same shall be continued, after notice, by any owner of property or inhabitant of the town, being given in writing to the offending party to remove the same.

Not lawful to obstruct streets.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to obstruct in any way or manner whatever, any of the streets, lanes or alleys, of the said town of Franklin, as laid down in the said plat of the town, so as to prevent a free passage along, over and through the same, under a penalty of three dollars for each and every offence, and the additional sum of one dollar for every hour any such obstruction shall be permitted to remain, after notice to remove the same by any one whose passage may so as aforesaid be obstructed.

Disposition of fines.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all the fines and penalties under the provisions of this Act shall be recoverable in the name of the State of Maryland, in an action of debt before a single Justice of the Peace, and paid over to the School Commissioners, for the benefit of the public schools in the first election district of Baltimore county.

Repealed.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent with this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

In force.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1872.