

nished and work done, by order of the Chief Clerk of House of Delegates, fifty-five dollars and ninety cents; to Thomas J. Duvall, for sundries furnished the House of Delegates, by order of the Chief Clerk, twenty-one dollars and twenty-five cents; to John Himmelheber, for work done on the State House, by order of Secretary of Senate, eighteen dollars; to Samuel Stewart, for materials furnished and work done, by order of Secretary of Senate, sixty-nine dollars; to James E. Tate, for sundries furnished House of Delegates, by order of Chief Clerk, one hundred and fifty-seven dollars and eighty-five cents; to Henry W. Jenkins and Son, for chairs furnished the Senate Chamber, ninety-four dollars and fifty cents; to John Murphy and Company, for stationery furnished the State Library, eighty-two dollars and seventy cents; to James E. Tate, for sundries furnished the Senate, by order of Secretary of Senate, one hundred and thirty dollars and eighty-two cents; to John Root, late Collector of State taxes in Carroll county, for over payment into the treasury, as per certificate of the Comptroller and Treasurer, seven dollars and forty-two cents; to Richard Tydings, for work done and materials furnished in fitting up Committee Rooms, thirty-nine dollars and seventy-five cents; to James Iglehart and Son, for materials furnished for repairs to the State House, one hundred and eighteen dollars and thirty-one cents; to John G. and R. M. Proud, for costs of suits in State cases, twenty-eight dollars and sixty cents; to Naval Academy Band, for music furnished on inauguration day, by order of committee, one hundred and sixteen dollars.

Names and amounts.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take In force. effect from and after its passage.

Approved April 1, 1872.