

President
may call general meeting.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors may call a general meeting of the stockholders for any purpose relative to the affairs of the company, giving at least fifteen days' notice thereof in two daily newspapers of the City of Baltimore, and any number of stockholders, not less than twenty, holding together not less than five hundred shares of the company, may at any time apply to the President and Directors to call a general meeting of the stockholders for any purpose relative to the affairs of the company, and if the President and Directors refuse to call such meeting, the number of stockholders, proprietors of the said number of shares, shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders, giving at least fifteen days' notice in said two newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, specifying in such notice the object of such meeting.

Not to issue
currency.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer banking privileges in said company to issue any note, token, scrip, device or other evidence of debt to be issued as currency.

May accept additional powers.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That a majority in amount of the whole number of stockholders may, in their discretion, accept and receive any additional powers and privileges which may at any time be conferred upon this company, either by amendment to this Act or by any other Act hereafter to be passed.

In case of partial destruction by fire.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That in case of a partial distruction by fire, the loss shall be determined by assessors to be appointed as follows: the person whose property is insured shall have the privilege of selecting one disinterested person, the Board of Directors of this company shall select another; should these two persons disagree in their valuation of a loss, they shall select another disinterested person, and the award of a majority shall be final, and the company shall pay the same within ninety days after the date of their awards.
