

writing, of stockholders holding not less than one thousand shares, by giving three days' notice of such intended meeting in any of the daily papers published in the City of Baltimore; and in case of the refusal of said board to call such general meeting at the request aforesaid, then it is hereby competent for the said stockholders holding not less than one thousand shares, to call such general meeting in the manner above specified.

In case of refusal.

Not personally liable.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That no stockholder or other member of this corporation shall be answerable, in his person or individual property, for any contracts or agreements of said corporation, or for any losses, discrepancies or failure of the capital stock of this corporation, but the whole of the capital stock, together with all property, rights and credits belonging thereto, and nothing more, shall at any time be answerable for the demand against said corporation.

Directors may delegate powers.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the directors may delegate any of the powers herein conferred to an executive committee; nothing herein contained shall be construed as to confer privileges on said corporation to issue any note, token, device, scrip or other evidence of debt to be used as currency.

Lawful to hold an election on a day fixed.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That if it so happen from any cause an election for directors shall not be made on the day appointed in this charter, it shall be lawful to hold an election on such day as may be fixed by the directors, they causing six days' notice to be given thereof in a daily newspaper of said Baltimore city.

Made perpetual.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That when the sum of one hundred thousand dollars shall be subscribed and paid in, in cash, then the charter of this corporation shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual: the General Assembly reserving to itself the right at any time to alter or amend the same.

Reserved.

In force.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1872.