

hanna River; then down the said run to the Susquehanna River, and then by and with the said river to the place of beginning.

147. The said President and Commissioners may <sup>May</sup> appoint a clerk, and prescribe his duties, and allow <sup>clerk.</sup> him such compensation for his services as they may think proper.

148. All ordinances passed by the said President and Commissioners shall be entered by the clerk in a book, to be kept by him for that purpose; and said ordinances, or printed copies thereof, shall be kept for the inspection of any persons interested. <sup>Ordinances.</sup>

149. The said President and Commissioners shall have power to determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the building of wharves in said town, and to regulate the mooring of rafts, arks and boats on the waters of the Susquehanna River, in front of said town. <sup>Power to regulate all matters.</sup>

150. The proprietors of lots binding on and entitled to the privileges of the waters in said town, may, subject to the rules and ordinances of said President and Commissioners, wharf out, extend and improve the whole front of their lots for such distance as from time to time they shall think proper, and they shall be entitled exclusively to such emoluments arising from the wharfage thereof, as may be fixed upon by the said President and Commissioners; but nothing contained in this or the preceding section shall prevent the owner of any wharf erected in said town from having the exclusive right to use, occupy and enjoy the same at pleasure. <sup>Proprietors of lots.</sup> <sup>Exclusive right to use.</sup>

151. The said President and Commissioners shall have the power to pass ordinances regulating the market, measurement and weight of all provisions sold in and to be consumed in said town; to suppress all disorderly meetings; to prevent firing guns, squibs, or any kind of fire-arms or fire-works in said town; to suppress and abate all nuisances; to punish parties for exposing for sale or selling unsound provisions; to prevent swine, ducks and geese from going at large; to prevent any immoderate driving <sup>Powers of the President and Commissi'ners</sup>