

registered; and the qualified voters of each alderman district shall, at the polls in their respective wards, vote for an Alderman; one Alderman shall be chosen from each of said five aldermanic districts, and shall be voted for at the polls in the wards comprising said district, by the qualified voters of such district, and none others. The elections shall be held at such places in such ward as the judges of election of the ward may prescribe, and the polls shall be kept open from nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon. How chosen.

SEC. 85. The Board of Common Council shall be composed of ten members, one from each of said ten wards of the city, who shall be elected in the manner following, that is to say: "the qualified voters of each of said wards shall elect one member of said Common Council; the election shall be by wards, and no person shall be entitled to vote for any but the member for the ward of which he is an actual resident, (except as hereinafter stated,) and in and for which he is registered; the said election shall be held on the last Monday in February, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, and on that day in every year thereafter; and shall be held by the same judges of election by whom, and at the same polls in the several wards at which the election for Mayor and an Alderman may be held, when such election for Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen shall occur on the same day and in the same year, and at such other places in the several wards as may be designated by the judges of election for the respective wards," when an election for members of the Common Council only occurs; and the polls shall be kept open during the same hours hereinafter named for the election of Mayor and Aldermen. Common Council to be elected.
Time of holding election.
Polls to be kept open.

SEC. 87. No person shall be Alderman of said city unless he shall be at the time of his election a citizen of the United States, above the age of twenty-one years, and shall have been at the time of his election a resident of the city one year, and a resident of the aldermanic district for which he is elected for six months next preceding his election, Qualifications of Aldermen.